LEGIONAIRES

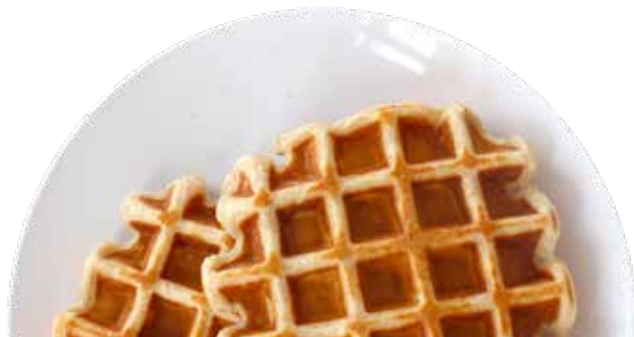

Dear Alma American Legion Post 224

Having been installed for two years we did not install new Post Officers in June. Thank You to ALL MEMBERS for your support during the past year. It will be an up-hill battle to keep Post 224 viable. We need new members and a consistent income. The Post will need each member to help recruit new veterans and come up with new ways to provide the necessary financial support. This will enable us to continue the support we supply to our community of Veteran Families. Please come cheer on our Legion Baseball Team on one of the next Monday or Friday evenings. Join us when you can to serve Military Veterans and their Families and have a great summer!

Checkout our improving Website: www.americanlegionpost224.org

Looking forward to our future meetings and fundraisers.

Respectfully,
Richard Treu, Commander

Sunday, August 28th, 2018 @ 4:00 PM

Our American Legion's National Convention Parade takes place in Minneapolis. After that a party is held at the Convention Center. We are planning on a group of us leave Alma by motor coach bus at 12:00 PM and return about 9:00 PM that same day. If at least 40 people agree to go the cost to each would be $20.00 (or less). If you are interested in attending the parade and post parade party for a couple hours please call and confirm with David Danzinger at his mobile number which is (715-495-2533). We have never had a National Convention so close to our Post. Please join the group and go see our Wisconsin National Commander Denise H. Rohan from Verona, Wisconsin and Wisconsin Auxiliary President Diane Duscheck from Markesan, Wisconsin do their work. Feel free to attend any of the 98th National Convention activities which take place in Minneapolis from August 23rd through 30th! For more information go to wilegion.org.
